Community Profile:

The Waterwheel Condominium is in the Village of Ardsley located at 867 Saw Mill River Road (Route 9A). The Village of Ardsley is in Southern Westchester in the Town of Greenburgh and is bordered by the Village of Dobbs Ferry on the west, Village of Irvington on the north, and the unincorporated areas of the Town of Greenburgh on the south and east. It is approximately 10 miles north of New York City.

A Rite Aid, coffee shops, restaurants and a food market are located within a half mile of the condominium. A Stop & Shop Supermarket in Dobbs Ferry is within two miles. Major shopping malls are located nearby in Yonkers and White Plains.

The Westchester County Bee-Line Bus System offers regular service between Yonkers, White Plains and Harrison (Routes 5 & 6) and between the Bronx and the Westchester Community College in Valhalla (Route 1C). The bus stop is within walking distance. Ardsley is served by Metro North by the Dobbs Ferry and Ardsley on Hudson stations (Hudson Line) with service to Yankee Stadium, 125th Street in Harlem, Grand Central and north to Poughkeepsie as well as the Scarsdale and Hartsdale Stations (Harlem line) with service to Grand Central and north to Wassaic. These stations are 2.3 to 3.35 miles from the site. The nearby Saw Mill River Parkway, Sprain Brook Parkway and New York State Thruway affords easy car access to lower Westchester and New York City and to points north.

The Village provides a variety of recreation and sports programs for residents.

Community Profile (cont'd):

The community center on Center Street is open for youth activities and senior citizens programs. It is used to teach a variety of classes. There are two large Village owned parks. Pascone Park has lighted tennis courts, a softball field, a basketball court, soccer fields, a playground, a skate park and picnic areas. McDowell Park has four baseball diamonds, a basketball court and a picnic pavilion. The 172-acre VE Macy Park, managed by Westchester County and located on the west side of Route 9A, is within walking distance of the Waterwheel Condominium with ball fields, a playground and picnic pavilion. It is also a spot for fishing and ice skating and provides access to the South County Trailway for walking, running and biking.

The Village's Youth Advocate Program offers activities and services for 7th-12th graders. The Waterwheel Condominium is served by Ardsley Union Free School District – Concord Road Elementary School (K-4th), Middle School (5th- 8th), and High School (9th-12th). At the Concord Road School, a series of innovative programs have been adopted including Investigations in Number, Data and Space, a program designed by The Technical Education Research Center to enhance problem-solving skills in mathematics, and Columbia University's Teachers College Reading and Writing Project. The Ardsley Public Library offers adult and children programs and internet resources and is a member of the Westchester Library System.
